FLOW Follies

Since 1986, FLOW Follies has raised over $650,000 which has been distributed to hundreds of students making us the single largest scholarship fundraiser for the two RIH high schools.

We are a registered 501(c)3 non-profit organization under the parent organizations of the Ramapo Indian Hills Regional High School District.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November 1, 2016

Last Chance Open House: FLOW Follies 31st Annual Comedy Musical Production!

FLOW Follies is excited to announce one last chance to audition for on stage roles in our annual musical comedy fundraiser production, to be performed March 2-5, 2017. Parents, teachers, students and community members of all ages and talents, from the three FLOW towns (Franklin lakes, Oakland, Wyckoff) are invited to participate on stage or off! Volunteers are also needed to support efforts in publicity and marketing, ticket and ad journal sales, business administration, as well as costuming, make-up, musicians, choreography, stage and scenery design, painting, graphic design and much more! We've even added a wonderful FLOW K-8 children choir to our show!

Stop by and learn more about this wonderful community organization and meet current members and our new Director, John Bukovec. If you sing... bring a song, if you dance... bring your dancing shoes, if you have an act...do it! (Participants do not need to be a parent of High School student to join!)

WHEN: Saturday, November 19th from 10:00am - 12:00 pm

WHERE: INDIAN HILLS HIGH SCHOOL – 97 Yawpo Avenue, Oakland, N.J.
